Voters Approve New City Charter

NEWLY ELECTED COUNCIL TO CHOOSE MAYOR

The special election held Monday for voting on approval or disapproval of the new city charter resulted in approval of the provisions as drawn up by the nine-man charter commission, which are to become the laws under which the city of Grayling is to be administered until such time as the people may wish to alter amendments or changes. The vote was 190 yes, and 143 no.

Also at that time five councilmen were elected. They are as follows:

Jesse E. Schoonover.
Carl Jensen.
Chris W. Olsen.
Frank Sales.
Roy O. Milnes.

Out of a list of eight candidates the above five had the larger number of votes. The unsuccessful candidates, some failing by but a few votes, are Al. Roberts, Nelson O. Corwin and Fred Tatro. Mr. Roberts and Mr. Corwin are old experienced councilmen and both would have been capable members of the new council. Mr. Tatro has resided in Grayling but a few years and is not well known to the majority of voters. Mr. Schoonover and Mr. Milnes were members of the old council and have a very good understanding of the city's affairs. Frank Sales has served on previous village councils and will prove an able councilman. Mr. Jensen is new on the council but has had considerable experience in public office and will no doubt prove an able member. With the new council as elected the city's affairs should be in good hands. The new charter contains many new innovations in Grayling government and some radical changes in our administration may be expected. The plan of the charter follows along lines that have been successful in many cities of Michigan and other states.

We feel that Grayling is entering an era of government that is certain, if properly administered, to be a decided improvement upon former governments. Let's give these men our material and moral support and work with them for the good of Grayling. We are expecting much and feel confident that we shall have it.

Hans Petersen, an active and experienced justice of the peace was elected first justice under the new administration, defeating Frank A. Barnett.

There were no candidates for the office of constable, but Bert DeFrain was elected when his name was written in upon several ballots.

The village council will meet next Monday night and turn over its authority to the newly elected council. A mayor and mayor pro tem will be selected from the members of the new council. A budget will have to

Legion Jottings

Last Thursday evening Comrade Frank Hussey of Detroit, who has been in our city before and has made the acquaintance of several of our comrades, gave the boys some expert pointers on playing and drilling. He represents the Conn Instrument Co., and is an expert drum and bugle and band instructor and has organized 172 corps throughout the United States. After the workout the Legion boys gave a party in their hall. Among those who attended was our comrade and mayor, Dr. Clippert, Comrades Roy Milnes, and Emil Giegling. It was much enjoyed.

We are glad to report at this time that Comrade Harold Hatfield has improved enough from sickness to enable him to be in our ranks once more.

Our Homecoming committees have the promise of a record-breaking crowd and all improvements that can be done by individuals around their premises means a lot to the Legion Boys in making this event a huge success.

Have you purchased that Poppy yet? If not, don't wait until they are all gone.

All musical organizations, ex-service men, WRC, school teachers and children that are going to be in the Memorial Day parade must be at the Legion Hall not later than 9:30 Thursday morning. Parade to leave Hall on Peninsular Ave. promptly at 10 a. m.

If ever an organization has a good time it is the American Legion and its ladies' auxiliary. Tuesday night the regular social meeting of the Auxiliary was extended to include the men folks, and cards and lunch were enjoyed with a lot of jollity.

Placing the Thermometer

The opinion of many experts seems to be that the best place to put your thermometer if you want to be sure not to miss a shiver, is outside a north window on brackets, so that it will be away from the house wall, which is warmer than the air. The piazza isn't so good because it is likely to be too much sheltered.

be approved and a manager engaged for the coming year. C. A. Miller who has been serving some time as engineer for the village will very likely be offered the position of manager. During these past several weeks with the new waterworks project confronting the council Mr. Miller has proven himself of inestimable value in working out the hundreds of eccentricities necessitated, in order to comply with the demands of the PWA executives and other governmental agencies and it is doubtful if it could have been accomplished without such expert assistance.

Here's How They Stand in the Crawford Avalanche's

Weekly Payroll

Subscription Campaign

Participants are listed in alphabetical order, with credits accepted for publication up to Tuesday night, May 28. The totals show the order of standing of workers as to place according to their work so far in the drive, but do not necessarily show the grand total of each worker, as credits may be held in reserve.

Mrs. Stanley Flower (Hospital Aid)	108,000
Mrs. Laura Parker	361,250
Miss Jennie Lee Raymond (Frederic)	111,000
DeVere Schmidt	383,100
Reginald Sheehy	297,350
Mrs. Laura Welch	108,000

Remember—Now is the time to help your favorite, while votes are highest. The more money you pay at the present reduced price, the more money you save—and a five year subscription gives your favorite eight times as many votes as a one year one.

Who'll be in the lead when the standings are published next week?

RIALTO TWENTY YEARS IN BUSINESS

It was on May 29th, 1915 that George N. Olson opened a motion picture theatre in the Masonic Temple building. Beginning with modest projecting apparatus, the theatre was improved as the time went on. Then the talkies came into use and it wasn't long before Mr. Olson installed that kind of apparatus. It was a costly venture but in order to keep up to date it was necessary to do so. Grayling Opera house, as it was known at that time, had gained an enviable reputation for good shows presented under good conditions. Then in the month of April, 1930 came the fire that wiped out the entire building and its contents. The evening performance had just nicely started when fire broke out in the projecting room. The occupants of the latter place narrowly escaped disaster. The crowd in the theatre was dismissed in an orderly manner and nobody was hurt. Nothing of the contents of the structure was saved. The theatre property and properties of Grayling Masonic lodge and Eastern Star chapter were entirely consumed.

Mr. Olson immediately got busy and made plans for a new, better and bigger theatre. He purchased a part of the land owned by the Grayling Opera House Co. and soon contractors were busy on the new plans. On July 22, 1930 the new theatre opened under the name of the "Rialto." As in the beginning of his theatre business Mr. Olson always aimed to keep his place right in front with the latest improvements as they came out. The Rialto is the finest theatre anywhere in Northern Michigan. Seats are as comfortable as those of the metropolitan theatres; the ventilation is the most modern; the acoustics are the best; walls are scientifically designed in order to eliminate any extraneous noises; the projecting machines are of the latest type, as is also the sound apparatus.

The Rialto started out a modern plant five years ago and it is just as modern today because of Mr. Olson's determination to have the best at all times. Patrons are drawn to the Rialto from a large area. No longer is this theatre dependent upon Grayling and Crawford county for its patronage for the crowds come from all neighboring communities for fifty miles around.

The class of productions offered the theatre public is always the newest to be had. Pictures are very frequently exhibited here long before they reach the majority of large cities, and not a few times the first showings of pictures in Michigan are at the Rialto. This may seem ambiguous but it is the truth nevertheless.

We are sure the theatre goes and other citizens of Grayling generally join us in congratulating Mr. Olson upon his remarkable success and wish for him many years of equal progress in theatre prestige.

Camps 672, 674, 681 and 1611 will compete and the public is invited to go out and watch the events. It will be a full afternoon's program on the plan of a three-ring circus with something going on all the time.

This Is Booster Week In Campaign

With all preliminaries out of the way, and with subscriptions counting more this week than they will at any time from now to the end of the campaign, the fine group of campaigners in the Crawford Avalanche's big prize subscription race have settled down in real earnest this week to the serious business of piling up credits toward winning that fine Chevrolet coach which is going to be awarded to one of them in just a few more short weeks.

Every one of the leading campaigners has his or her eye on that Chevrolet coach, or on the $490 optional cash reward, and, believe us, there is going to be some real action seen between now and the stirring finish on June 29.

DeVere Schmidt, who took the lead the first week of the campaign, is one of the several campaigners it will pay to watch from now to the finish. DeVere knows that his early lead gives him an advantage, and he has promised to show some real speed from now on to the end in an attempt to keep that position.

Mrs. Laura Parker is another who really intends to win first place. A widow with a large family, Mrs. Parker says that victory in this campaign would mean a lot to her, and at the rate she is gaining credits now, she may easily be in the lead in a few days. A member of the Grange, she has friends throughout the county pulling for her.

Reginald Sheehy also wants that first prize. Reggie is handicapped for the next couple of weeks by the fact that he is still attending high school, but in spite of that he is piling up credits fast, and says that they'll all have to watch his smoke during the last couple of weeks. In the meantime, he is working hard to keep as near as possible to the leaders until school is out and he can put in full time.

Mrs. Stanley Flower is a newcomer in the race who shows promise of "going places." She has announced that if she wins, her winnings will go to the Mercy Hospital Aid, to be used in helping the local hospital, so she will undoubtedly have the backing of this organization throughout the campaign.

Jennie Lee Raymond, at Frederic, is the only campaigner from outside the city limits who has sold any subscriptions so far. She, like Reggie Sheehy, is handicapped by being in school, but her school will be out after this week, and her friends predict that she will be a real factor in the race from then on. Jennie Lee will be remembered as one of the strongest contenders in the Winter Queen contest here last year.

Mrs. Laura Welch of Grayling has also made a start in the campaign but has been delayed in getting started. Her friends say that if she really gets going the way she is capable of doing, she can take that Chevrolet away from the whole field of campaigners.

Just a little more than four weeks from now, someone from this group of campaigners—someone who grasps this fine opportunity and makes the most of it—will be enjoying the fruits of his or her efforts: driving that new Chevrolet or perhaps enjoying the many things the cash equivalent of this prize would make possible.

Certainly that is something worth looking forward to and worth working for—an opportunity not presented ever day.

And this is the week when the hardest work of all should be done. This is Booster Week, the week referred to in Rule 16 in our opening announcement, which said that during the third week of the campaign, 12,500 EXTRA credits would be given on every five years in subscriptions turned in. This is the last time in the campaign a bonus will be offered. Credits will never again be so easy to get after this week. What is done the three remaining days of this week may mean the eventual winning of first place by one of the workers.

Someone is going to turn in enough subscriptions to win that car or the $490. Will it be you? Willard Cornell is Kiwanis chairman in charge of the program.

Memorial Day 1935

Seventy-seven years ago our country began the formal observance of an occasion devoted to the memory of its heroic dead, who laid down their lives for the priceless privileges of free Government might be established and perpetuated for the citizenship of the Republic.

A growing zeal should mark the annual observance of this day, because of the additional sacrifices that have been made since then, and because, from the ever-deepening well springs of memory, arise those proud ideals which keep alight the fires of patriotism and form the very foundation upon which our future as a people must rest. "Lord God of Hosts be with us yet, lest we forget, lest we forget."

It is most fitting that our observance of Memorial Day should have come to include in its bestowal of flowers and tears, the sacred ashes of all of our loved ones who have passed from earth to the beautiful realm where God reigns in infinite love and understanding. They, too, in the homes and the quiet pursuits of peace, have earned the undying gratitude of our nation.

Therefore, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Governor, I hereby proclaim Thursday, May 30, Memorial Day, and request its traditional observance by the people of the commonwealth.

FRANK D. FITZGERALD,
Governor.

Opening Gas Station Thursday

The B. J. Callahan gas station, that has been built on the site where their dwelling was located on US-27, will be opened to the public on Memorial day. Workmen have been busy for the past several weeks and have constructed a very attractive building on this corner.

Mr. Callahan and family have long been residents of Crawford county; they resided at Frederic for many years previous to coming to Grayling.

Having had experience in the business, Mr. Callahan and sons Bill and Jack will be in charge, and they will handle Blue Sunoco gas.

Many of us are blind to the unexploited equities within ourselves.

State Welfare To Withdraw Support

OFFICIALS COMPLAIN OF LACK OF COOPERATION
Many Outsiders Being Supported Here

Demands by the State Welfare Relief commission for appropriation of $10,000 and the lack of funds by the County brings about a state of affairs that isn't easy to solve. To deprive hundreds of families, who now depend upon welfare, of the support they need would be a calamity, but to provide funds with which to keep up this work when treasuries are depleted is another thing to think about. Something must be done, but what?

The county hasn't the money; their hands are tied, according to claims by one of the members. Still the S.E.R.A. insists that pledges be forthcoming from county funds for the expenditure of $10,000 for welfare relief. The following letter was received by the local ERA administrator:

Lansing, May 21, 1935.
Mrs. Laura Olson, Adm.,
Crawford County ERA,
Grayling, Michigan.

My dear Mrs. Olson:
Since I met with your County officials during the first week in April at which time, to my understanding, it was generally agreed that Crawford County was to provide $10,000 in work relief as its share of local relief contribution, I have had various reports from your county with reference to making a definite agreement.

From reports coming to me to date, I am informed that your Board of Supervisors have passed a resolution which in substance states:

"We cannot conform with the S.E.R.A. request because we feel that if some of the people now employed by the Road Commission do not work they cannot pay taxes."

It has been determined that Crawford County's fair share as a local relief contribution is $10,000.00, and I feel that the county officials are not cooperating with us in a reasonable way in taking the above position. If the county wishes to pay cash instead of providing work relief for a part or of all of the above named amount that will be acceptable to us.

Because of the objections which have been raised and because of the dilatory tactics of your county officials, I am going to recommend to Dr. Haber that further funds be withheld from Crawford County until some reasonable contribution is forthcoming from your county officials.

Very truly yours,
R. W. Clark,

Municipal Finance Section.
That would make it appear that there has been gross negligence on the part of our public officials. According to Supervisor of Fred Niederer the county hasn't any funds for this work and that the County Board of Road commission is the only county organization having funds. Money being returned to this county from the gas tax fund is apportioned to the County Road commission and to Grayling city. This money may be used for the employment of labor—welfare or otherwise. By the latter we mean that it may be shared by the working men who prefer to support themselves rather than to have to depend upon welfare support. It seems that there is no half way standard—either be on the welfare or receive no support from that organization—be either off or on.

There are a lot of men who own their homes and desire to work for their living. They can't do it if the money is spent for welfare labor alone. That would drive them to the welfare lists. Here is what the Supervisors think about it, as expressed in their letter to the Road Commissioners:

April 14, 1935
Board of County Road Commissioners,
Grayling, Michigan.

Many complaints come to us as supervisors regarding the employment of Welfare labor by the Road Commission.

We realize that in order to qualify and keep the welfare functioning in our county we must show a payroll to the extent of $10,000.00 by the county at large employing welfare labor. However we must also keep in mind the welfare of our taxpaying citizens who for reasons of pride refuse to accept help but want to work. We must further take into consideration that putting a few dollars in the hands of our taxpayers will eventually be for the benefit of the county. We ask you to give this matter your consideration.

Board of Supervisors.

According to Frank Barnett, chairman of the County Board of Road commissioners, arrangements have been made for a meeting of that commission, the Board of supervisors and welfare officials some time in June. It appears, according to Supervisor Niederer that there are 77 families on the county welfare relief who are not legal residents of Crawford county. These must be supported from the funds provided by our taxpayers together with such support as comes from the state. As an offset there are only seven Crawford county families that are on relief in other counties. That makes a burden for our county taxpayers that is hardly equitable or fair.

We certainly take our hats off to those who, by their industry and frugality have been able to make ends meet without having to ask for assistance. Then there is the family who have been unable to bear the burden and have had to be assisted; they have our sympathy and highest esteem as well, and nobody will begrudge a single cent that has been paid them. Then there is the family who is always ready to receive and give little or nothing in return. The latter expect that the honest toiler is going to win their bread for them. That's what hurts and there are a plenty of such instances of that kind in this county.

It's great to be charitable; great to be helpful when people can afford to do so—it's a privilege and a pleasure. But nobody likes to be a goat for those who could and should be looking after their own needs. And it does seem that that class has been encouraged. The cost of welfare relief is tremendous and the cost of administration too is terrific, and how these communities are going to keep up the cost is a puzzle. We know very well that the Supervisors, the Road commissioners and the city council all desire to do the thing that is right, but how to get the money is no doubt what they would like to have someone tell them.

Junior Prom To Be Given Friday Night

Following the custom of years, the Junior Class will give the annual prom entertaining the Seniors and their friends on Friday evening, May 31st.

A lot of time is spent in getting ready for an affair of this kind and the Juniors this year are hoping to surpass all other classes in their efforts to make it an enjoyable party. Novelty decorations will transform the school gym into a ballroom for the occasion and for dancing they have Bill Sawyer and his orchestra of Saginaw to furnish the music. This orchestra seems to be a favorite in this section as they have had frequent engagements here of late.

The public is cordially invited to be guests of the Juniors on this occasion. Everybody welcome. Dancing from ten to two.

MANY NOTICEABLE IMPROVEMENTS

There are a number of business places and homes undergoing extensive repairs and renovating at the present time. Curiosity of a Boundary
North of the forty-ninth parallel and separated from the main part of Minnesota by the Lake of the Woods is a land area of nearly 124 square miles, including a number of small mountains, which became United States territory by treaties of 1783 and 1818. The inclusion of this area in the United States resulted from the use of inaccurate maps by the treaty makers, and has been described as a "political-geographical curiosity of a boundary."

Using Numerals for Dates
In using numerals for dates, the custom in the United States is to use the following order: Month, day, year. In some foreign countries, such as Great Britain, the order of day, month and year is followed.

DANNY HAS THE SHAKES

Of all the chills of which you hear
There's no chill like the chill of fear.

DANNY MEADOW MOUSE sighed with thankfulness and relief as he reached the other side of the Laughing Brook by way of the old log which had fallen across it, thus making a bridge. To be sure he was a long, long way from his snug little home, where Nanny Meadow Mouse was anxiously waiting for him, but at least he was on the right side of the Smiling Pool and the Laughing Brook. He no longer needed to think of the Big Pickle or of Snapper the Turtle. He had left Billy Mink and Reddy Fox way back by the Smiling Pool, so he felt quite safe from them.

Crept to the Entrance and Peeped Out.

Of course when he should reach the edge of the Green Meadows and start across to his snug little home he would have to watch for Reddy or old Swamp Fox, but just now he felt safe and it was a very good feeling indeed.

Being at last on the right side of the Laughing Brook DANNY felt that he had earned a rest, but having the wisdom of long experience he first looked for a place where he could rest in safety. Just a few feet from the end of the log on which he crossed the Laughing Brook was another old log. At once Danny scampered over to it, for he long ago learned that old logs are quite likely to be hollow, and when they are they make the very finest retreats in all the Great World for timid little people who wish to keep out of sight.

Just as he hoped, this old log was hollow and the only entrance was through an old knot hole barely big enough for Danny to squeeze through. Making sure that no one else was there, Danny squeezed in and promptly forgot all his recent troubles and was happy, which fortunately is the way of the little people of the Green Forest and the Green Meadows. If it were not they would know very little happiness.

In two minutes Danny was fast asleep. How long he slept, he didn't know, but suddenly he was wide awake. He heard nothing, but he had a feeling of uneasiness. He crept to the entrance and peeped out. The moonlight lay full on the old log across the Laughing Brook and even as he looked a slim dark form leaped up on the farther end and began to run swiftly across with nose close to the old log.

It was Billy Mink, and Danny knew Billy's wonderful nose had found his scent somewhere on the other bank, and that it would lead Billy straight to the hollow log. And so it happened. It was scarcely a minute before Billy's nose was poked in at the knot hole and Billy took one long sniff. "Ah, ha," said Billy. "So this is where you are. Come out like a gentleman and be eaten."

Danny said nothing, but he began to shake as with the cold. It was the chill of fear. He was trapped.

DEPT. OF STATE STATE NEWS BULLETIN

New Law Clarifies Tax On Diesel Oil

Enactment by the legislature, the day before adjournment, of Senate Bill No. 290, cleared away all possibility of legal difficulties which might have arisen in the future over collection of the state's three cents a gallon tax on motor fuel. Under the present law, representations have been made to the Secretary of State, that this type of oil, when used as a motor fuel, should be exempt from the gas tax. The bill passed and sent to the governor for his approval, re-defines the term "motor fuel" so that diesel oil is clearly taxable. The bill was drawn because of the increasing use of this oil as a motor fuel.

There are 518 people to whom the Secretary of State will pay some money, if he can locate them. Their names are the residue of a long list of more than 4,000 at one time, whose owners were entitled to a refund under the state's present weight tax law. In 1934, the legislature reduced the license plate tax rate from 55 cents per hundred pounds to 35. Motorists who had already bought their 1934 plates, were entitled to a refund in accord with the lowered rates. A few months after the act became effective, more than 4,000 checks were still undelivered; mail sent to last known addresses being unclaimed. The Department of State sent out some 5,000 letters to trace motorists entitled to their refunds. More than 4,000 letters were returned, but ultimately claims were made, with the reduction of the list to its present state. Among the claims made for refund, some were, strangely enough, from a few motorists who had not purchased their plates until the rate was lowered. The Secretary of State was not, however (as they discovered), looking for them.

An increase of nearly $2,500,000 in the collection of revenue from the sale of 1935 license plates and stickers up to April 20, as compared with the same period of 1934, has been recorded by the motor vehicle division of the Department of State. The greatly increased demand for bookkeeping services, reflected during the month of May, required hiring temporary employees in the department, largely for that month only, however. From Jan. 1, to April 20, last year, the plate and sticker collections totalled $8,872,251.77; the same period this year showed a total of $11,162,462.38, or an increase of $2,490,204.61.

SCHOOL AFFAIRS

School registration for next year took place last Friday when the Seniors went to Lansing on Skip Day. Several new electives have been added to next year's schedule among which are Commercial Arithmetic, Sociology, and Physics. Ten students are required to express the desire to take a special course before it will be included with the regular courses.

Friday's roll call was singularly short, both morning and afternoon. In fact no senior was present. All were celebrating "skip day," the old familiar privilege of all senior classes since school began to "take the day off" as a class unit in a final celebration and last fling before graduation.

This year's class chose Lansing as the scene of their activities and, greatly aided by the faculty, especially Mr. Bond, who went on ahead Thursday to make arrangements and pull wires, and remained to keep things moving throughout the big day, succeeded in putting in a full and very exciting, as well as instructive, 24 hours.

The class group of 27, comfortably placed in five cars belonging to various families of class members, left here between 6 and 6:30 Friday morning, re-assembling as a unit at the capital building at 10 a. m.

The time from 10 a. m. to 11:30 was spent in the capitol building during which time members of the class were individually greeted by Governor Fitzgerald and introduced, as a class group, to the senate by Senator Bert Carpenter. Other highlights of the capital visit were a trip to the top of the dome and an interesting visit to the state museum.

After lunch time, from 11:30 to 1:15, the class made rapid, thorough inspection visits to the state school for the blind, the Reo Motor Car plant, State Police headquarters, State Police radio broadcasting station, and Michigan State College. By the time this schedule had been completed, lunch time was near and the day wound up with a delightful dinner and dancing at the college.

The tired but happy group wended its way back to Grayling in the wee sma hours of the morning after unanimously voting it indeed "the end of a perfect day."

THE TEN COMMANDS FOR DAUGHTERS

1. Thou shalt not deceive thy mother.
2. Thou shalt not exchange the bloom of innocence for the favor and contempt of any man.
3. Thou shalt not esteem silk petticoats and diamond rings as of greater value than the family's general welfare.
4. Thou shalt not regard flattery and false pretense as the highway to popularity.
5. Thou shalt not gossip.
6. Thou shalt not use loud speech nor bold manner to attract attention.
7. Thou shalt not think more of the culture of thy heels than thy head.
8. Thou shalt not hold the cup to thy brother's lips; much less to the lips of somebody else's brother.
9. Thou shalt not imitate the fine lady's languor while thy mother washes dishes and sweeps the house.
10. Thou shalt find joy in the service of God, who created thee.

How would you like to have your more feeble thoughts recorded in cold type?

ENROLLEE VANISHES FROM PINES CAMP

Roosevelt Maxwell, enrollee at the Pines CCC camp is recorded as AWOL. And with him is a brand new Chevrolet government truck, two 45 calibre automatic revolvers and $60 in money. Now authorities are trying to locate him.

According to reports Maxwell, who is 25 years of age, left camp by truck at about 3:00 a. m. Sunday. His absence was discovered that morning but it was believed and expected that he would return sometime that day or evening. When the next morning came and Maxwell was still absent, investigation was made. It was found that the $60 in money and two automatic revolvers were missing.

The matter was reported to Sheriff Bennett who immediately got in touch with the State Police department at Lansing. By that time the fugitive had about 30 hours start and was very likely beyond the Michigan border. It is reported that on the morning he left he stopped in Grayling for breakfast and made a remark that he was starting for California.

The CCC trucks are property of the government and carry no license plates. They are all quite alike no matter if they come from Michigan or any other state had to identify any single one would not be so easy.

K. OF C. CONVENTION IN CHEBOYGAN

Cheboygan, the city in the heart of the resort region and located on the Straits of Mackinac at the tip of the Lower Peninsula will be host to the state convention of the Knights of Columbus on June 2 and 3.

Military thrills will be given at Cheboygan where the 61st Artillery regiment of Fort Sheridan, will be encamped for display of anti-aircraft equipment, and airplanes of the 15th Observation Squadron of Scott Field, Illinois, will maneuver.

Fishing in Cheboygan's famous trout streams, and well-stocked lakes, golf, bathing and speed-boating are also on the program of entertainment. Popular summer resort inns will supplement modern Cheboygan hotels and private homes in providing lodging.

"It is our aim," declared General chairman Joseph Blitke, "to give visitors and delegates one of the best times that they have ever had at a state K. of C. convention."

Formal convention activities begin with initiation of a class of 75 candidates from Cheboygan, Petoskey, Alpena, and Rogers City into the first, second and third degrees on Sunday afternoon, June 2. The Sault Ste. Marie council will have charge of the first degree; Alpena, the second degree; and Mt. Pleasant, the third degree.

The convention banquet will be held that evening in the spacious Thompson Gym, the most beautiful gymnasium in northern Michigan. Places will be set for 500. Speakers will include Supreme Knight Martin H. Carmody, of Grand Rapids, and Auditor General John J. O'Hara. District Deputy Emmet Richards of Alpena, witty newspaper publisher, will be toastmaster. Address of welcome will be given by Rev. Father Felix Vogt of Cheboygan, State Chaplain.

On Monday morning, June 3, a solemn requiem high mass will be officiated at St. Mary's Catholic church by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Joseph G. Pinten of Grand Rapids diocese, for repose of souls of deceased members.

Cooperating with the convention the Michigan Central railroad will run a $5.00 round trip excursion from Detroit to Cheboygan and other points in Northern Michigan, from May 31st to June 3.

Stop-and-go driving wastes your gasoline

— if your gasoline hasn't these 3 Different Kinds of Power —

4 OUT OF EVERY 5 miles you drive are within 25 miles of your doorstep... making business, shopping and social calls. This continual "stop-and-go" wastes your money—unless your gasoline has 3 distinct kinds of power—PERFECTLY BALANCED.

It must have POWER for quick starting... POWER for swift pickup... POWER for steady running.

Super-Shell, the first truly balanced gasoline, has these 3 kinds of power, and

SO CUTS YOUR DRIVING COSTS in three ways:

Can save up to a cupful of gasoline on every "Cold" Start. Super-Shell starts instantly—often warms up in half the time of ordinary gasolines—with less wasteful choking.

Can save up to a cupful of gasoline in 10 Minutes of Hard Pulling. Because of Super-Shell's even volatility, you can accelerate rapidly, or race your car up steep hills—on less gasoline, without wasteful knocking.

Can save up to a cupful of gasoline in One Hour of Steady Running. Every drop of Super-Shell vaporizes more completely at every engine temperature. So it saves on long runs, too.

SUPER-SHELL is also "weather-conditioned" for changes in temperature in all different climates.

Camp News

Camp Higgins

Dale Rigney, MECW foreman at this camp, has been a victim of the policy of reduced supervisory camp personnel. He left Friday night on a 28 day furlough, after which time he is to return here for work.

Truman LaVack, senior foreman, dislocated his left shoulder while unloading ice one day last week. He was given medical attention by Lieut. Katzman at the Mercy hospital, Grayling, and returned the next day to continue his duties.

A dining room for the MECW personnel is to be constructed at the west end of the mess-hall with celotex. At present the foremen have tables in their quarters, the orderly carrying food from the kitchen on trays, an arrangement which never has proven satisfactory.

Instead of fatigue on Saturdays, members of one barracks are working each evening after supper on duties about camp. The only work to be done normally on Saturday will be the customary policing of the camp area and the barracks in preparation for inspection.

Frank Moore, a World War veteran, has been enrolled in this camp for cooking. He has been helping in the kitchen since his arrival here several weeks ago but authority for his enrollment was not received until last week.

Starting last week end, a fire guard of 80 men in addition to the company overhead is to stay in camp until 7 o'clock in the evening. These men are available on short notice to fight forest fires.

Officers of the Fourth Forestry sub-district are taking considerable interest in the plans of the 61st Coast Artillery for maneuvers in northern Michigan under Col. Meyer, who formerly was commander of the Fifth Forestry sub-district which is north of here. Several recent district commanders stationed here, including Capt. N. D. Young, are assigned to this regiment.

Capt. T. J. Betts, who was assigned as district commander of the Fourth Forestry District with headquarters here for several months, has been assigned to duty in California.

Fire starting in the kitchen completely destroyed the mess hall at Camp Higgins Lake last Saturday morning at about 5:30 o'clock. The wind was in a favorable direction to enable fighters to save the flames from spreading to other buildings nearby. In addition to members of the camp, the fire was fought by members of the Grayling fire department, who responded with an engine at the call for help. A considerable amount of food was also destroyed. Tentage and foodstuffs were sent from Camp Custer the same day and nobody missed a meal. It is anticipated the structure will be rebuilt as soon as bids can be submitted.

A purchase of 25,000 board feet of lumber involving an expenditure of $875 is being made this week to construct new seed bed frames at the Higgins Lake state nursery, the work to be done by crews from this camp. The lumber was purchased of Claud LaRocque at Roscommon.
